PMA Funding To Host Seminar Featuring ICBA Chief Economist Paul Merski

Chicago – November 12, 2009 – PMA Funding™ (PMA), a leading provider of bank deposit and funding solutions, announced it will be hosting an educational seminar open to America's 8,000 community banks on November 17, 2009. The seminar will feature ICBA Chief Economist Paul Merski, who will be discussing economic and regulatory issues affecting community banks.

"We are excited to bring America's community banks together to hear from and converse with some of the industry's leading experts," said Jim Lutter, senior vice president of PMA Financial Network, Inc. "Providing timely and relevant information in an efficient manner is just one of the ways PMA partners with its clients in an effort to efficiently manage their liquidity needs."

Topics from other guest speakers will include local and national credit trends in the banking industry, effective contingency planning and opportunities for term funding in today's market.
